Intelident Solutions Announces New CFO

TAMPA, Fla. (February 15, 2007) — Intelident Solutions, a Tampa, Florida-based leader in the dental services sector, named Donald T. Kelly, CPA, its chief financial officer. Kelly brings with him more than 35 years experience as a strategic financial manager in healthcare, technology and manufacturing industries as well as professional employment and accounting firms.

Intelident's Chief Executive Officer Thomas Marler said, "We are happy to have found someone of Don's caliber to round out our executive management team. His experience will be invaluable as we launch a number of initiatives that will see our position grow from a regional leader to one of national prominence relative to dental technology and services."

Prior to joining Intelident, Kelly was chief financial officer with the Center for Wound Healing, Inc., a White Plains, NY-based provider of hyperbaric and wound care treatments. Prior to joining Wound Healing, Kelly was vice president and chief financial officer with TeamStaff, Inc., a leading business outsourcer and professional employer organization. He also held key management and controller positions with Wireless Cable International, a California-based cable provider; Potters Industries Inc., an industrial firm; and International Paper Company, Inc.

Kelly began his accounting career with Ernst & Young, one of the country's top accounting firms. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accounts, the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, and Financial Executives International. He holds a B.A. in accounting from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA in finance from Pace University.
